Leam Valley Messenger

Flecknoe      Grandborough      Leamington Hastings      Willoughby

April/May 2019

Rev Anne Hinks, Priest-in-Charge of Leam Valley Benefice
The Vicarage, Willoughby
Tel Nos: 01788 438561 and 07854 329892
Email: anne.hinks@outlook.com

As you read this, it will be nearly Easter-tide, a time of chicks and bunnies, chocolate and feasting; spring-time with lambs dancing and prancing in the fields, and new growth in the hedges and trees; and at the heart of it all, the wondrous story of the death and resurrection of God, who showed his humility as he came as Jesus Christ and gave his life so we could know his way.

Yet, as I write this in March, there is a tide of anxiety and anger about our future, with all the uncertainty of Brexit; not even knowing when it is going to happen. Farmers, businesses, workers, not knowing if their imports will arrive or exports succeed. And a tide of brutality as people post gruesome film on social media of the massacre in a New Zealand Mosque, as though it would appeal to others.

What does Christ say to those struggling with anger, anxiety and despondency? "Come to me, all who are weary and heavily burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my way, and learn from me, for I am humble and gentle in heart, and you will find rest in your heart. For my way brings ease, and my burden is light."

The story of the deep love of God is being found to be true in the hearts of many people today, the God who is humble accompanies us through our lives; gentle and loving as a mother with her children, drawing us into the friendship of Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

He has promised to be with us, and to guide us, as we allow him. There will still be difficult events, just as they were when Jesus was on earth, but he encouraged his followers, in troubles and difficulties, to hold their heads high and keep faithful, for God is working his purpose out, both with us and in spite of us.

Meantime, all the churches welcome you to celebrate with us on Good Friday and Easter Day, and there will be treats for the children.

Around this time, all the churches will be having their yearly meetings, taking stock of their situation, with structures in dire need of repair and restoration. What is their future? Small congregations struggle courageously to keep up with their care. Just the admin is heavy work, not to mention the permissions needed for working on the building! They need to know how important the churches are to their villages, and how they can be managed for the future. We hope to meet with you soon.

So please remember them in your prayers and your hearts, as they remember you and seek to serve you; and may God bless you all!

With my love,

Anne

In total this raised the excellent sum of £522 towards church funds.

Thanks to Laura Seago for organising a very successful visit to 'Jumpln' in Leamington Spa for 13 children and 8 adults on Sunday 17th March. This was a great opportunity to meet up away from the church for a fun event that was much enjoyed by all. At Jumpln there are multiple trampolines and other bouncy activities that can be enjoyed by all ages. Thanks also to Clare Grant who provided lunch for the whole party afterwards.

Breakfast Service
